Enclosure 1 3

The Supdt. Jailor Central Jail Bangalore

G. Hume Wright Esquire Superintendent,
Central Jail
Bangalore.

Sir,

I beg most Respectfully to submit the following few lines to your Kind Consideration.

During the Revision of the Jail Establishment in 1896, Mr Subba Rau the present Manager of the Office of the Inspector General of Prisons, myself and one Narain Sastri were appointed as Assistant Jailors on a salary of Rs 50 to 55, 40 to 45 and 30 to 35 Respectively. A few months after, Narain Sastri was transferred to the Chief Court and one Sastri Gopi Ramdas appointed in his place. One year after our appointments as above, the then Superintendent Mr A.V. Sparkes was Kind enough to recommend our cases to the Inspector General of Prisons for our maximum pay of Rs 55- 45 & 35 being given consideration of the fact that we were Officials who had put in long service in the Jail and had taken

In this connection the above recommendation having received the support of the Inspector General, the Government were pleased to sanction the proposals. Accordingly, I was appointed 1st Assistant Jailor from 1st June 1901 on Rs. 50/- and on 1st June 03, I will have completed 2 years of approved service in that grade. Some time back my application praying to be given the maximum pay of the appointment was kindly forwarded by you to the Inspector General of Prisons, but to my misfortune it does not appear to have received consideration yet.

I beg to state that I am an official who has put in a long service of 16 years in the Jail Department without any rest whatever and have all along been giving entire satisfaction to my superiors in the discharge of duties entrusted to me.

Under the circumstances therefore I respectfully beg that you will be so good as to recommend my case to the Inspector General of Prisons with a view to the maximum pay of the appointment (viz Rs 55/-) being given me from 1st June 03, - for which act of grace I shall [illegible]

Kindness I shall ever pray.

I beg to remain
Respected Sir,
Your most obdt. and humble Servt.
